Cocktails

The OMG&T

Perfect after work, this quintessentially drink has been given a fresh berry facelift that'll wow your taste with Gordon's London Dry Gin, toss in a few Berries, blend in some Elderflower Cordial and sparkle it up with a dash of Tonic Water & Lime.

5.5

Mojito

Delivering zesty lime with fresh mint and a backbone of crystal clear, smooth Bacardi Rum, the classic Mojito cocktail recipe.

5.5

Strawberry Daiquiri Mannin Style

Rum, lime and sugar are at the base of the Daiquiri, a match made in heaven, Alongside the Cuba Libre and the Mojito, the Daiquiri is one of the three great Cuban cocktails, and by adding strawberries it gains texture and taste.

6

Long Island Iced Tea

An unusual blend of vodka, gin, tequila, rum and orange liqueur with cola, the Long Island Iced Tea flavours of vanilla and lightly tannic wood make it taste a little like tea, but in fact they come from a mix of quality aged spirits.

7

Cuba Libre

Simple, delicious and so much more than just a rum and cola, the Cuba Libre probably dates back to 1900's, a few months after a new-fangled drink called cola arrived in Cuba.

5.5

Margarita

Nothing says Mexico like the Margarita, an elegant blend of tequila, fresh lime and orange, served in a salt-rimmed glass – and the last of the great classic cocktails.

5.5

Martini

The Martini is one of the world's most famous cocktails, with a clean, clear flavour and appearance that's celebrated in so many books and films. But there remains that one lingering question when you come to make it: do I shake or stir?

6.5

Gordon's Ruby Cooler

The Gordon's version of the ginger-accented cocktail adds spice to the zesty cranberry fruit juice for a fine flavour combination.
